What We Are Learning

Religion: Next week we will be learning about the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. We will be discussing the various ways God performs miracles and how He heals.

Reading/Writing: By February 28th, students will need to have a bibliography outline for their Experts' Fair research as well as at least 10 of their questions thoroughly answered. Their bibliography and answers may be typed or on their notecards. In reading next week we will be using comprehension skills to identify facts and opinions.

Math: In my last newsletter I mentioned that the Chapter 7 test would be on 2/13. Due to taking a few extra days to review Chapter 6, the Chapter 7 test will now be on 2/21.

Social Studies: We will be extending our end of unit project on The Early Americans through next week. All work on these projects will be done in class and are due on 2/13.

Science: Next week we will begin our next unit on Microworlds. Students will start by learning about microscopes and introductory vocabulary about the topic.

Reminders & Other News

Please return Thursday Folders every Friday and Friday Folders every Monday (signed). Both folders can be turned in directly to me!

Presidents Day Assembly:
In the past students in charge of the Presidents Day Assembly have been assigned a past president to research and dress up as. This year we are doing a trivia style assembly. I offered the option for students to dress up as a previous president for our assembly if they would like to, but it must be approved by me first. We would love to have support from our 5th grade families. These assemblies usually start right after morning prayer in the gym (8:30) and will most likely be about 15-20 minutes at the most.

Weekly Prayer

O my God, I firmly believe that Thou art one God, in three Divine Persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; I believe that Thy Divine Son became man and died for our sins and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the holy Catholic Church teaches, because Thou hast revealed them, Who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.
